Departures-Jan. 4, S. S. Oceanic for Honolulu, etc., and brig Consuelo for Kahului.

Projected Departures - Jan. 18 S. S. Australia, Feb. 6, S. S. Mariposa, 14th S. S. China, schr. Aloha, bk. Ceylon, all for Honolulu.

The pennant which will hereafter fly from the masthead of contract ships carrying the United States mail will have a red field with a blue border, and in the upper left-hand corner will be an eagle bearing a shield on its breast.

There is lots of talk about a general strike of the Coast seamen to prevent the shipping of non-union men on the Coast, and to keep up wages. The men are getting $45 and $50 per month and it is said they have $70,000 in their treasury.

An excursion steamer for bay and ocean use has just been launched at White's yard at North Beach, San Francisco. She is a vessel of 250 tons and is named the Rosalia.

Conk-Jan. 4th, arrived the Norwegian bark Havfrauten, from Honolulu.

The whaling fleet is getting un-der way rapidly and will rendezvous at Honolulu in March.

An ocean race is on from New York between the ships E. B. Sutton and Jabez Howes which have left New York for San Francisco. The Howes is the favorite.

"HAWAH PONOL."

A National Anthem to Order.

The following story is taken from the New York Dramatic News. It was shown to Professor Berger, who laughed heartily and insisted that it be reprinted in the ADVERTISER for the benefit of everybody who appreciates a good

"The late Fred Leslie used to tell a story of an incident that occurred at Honolulu, when he visited the Sandwich Islands with the London Gaiety company that musicians particularly enjoyed. Leslie and his associates attended a national festival at which King Kalakaua and all the Hawaiian dignitaries were present. A concert by a band of native musicians, with a German leader, constituted a part of the proceedings. During the progress of this festival it was announced that the band would play the Hawaiian national anthem. All the natives, dignitaries as well as common people, arose and uncovered their heads. The Gaiety company followed their example and prepared to listen in a very reverential fashion. The band began to play, and Leslie was immensely surprised to hear the strains of a well-known song of the London music halls. He glanced at his fellow-players, and they could scarcely keep from laughing outright. When the music was over, he went to the leader and asked him the title of the piece which his band had just played.

"Dhat vos the Hawaian andhem," he said.

"But," persisted Leslie, "isn't the melody the same as 'He wears a Penny Flower in his Coat ?'"

"Sh! Don'd say a vord," replied the German. "Dhey vanted ein national leider and dot vos as good as anydings I could gompose!

At the World's Fair.

Madrid, Jan. 1 .- The Infanta Isabella will sail for the United States next April on a Spanish or American war ship to open the Chicago World's Fair as a representative of the Queen Regent, Christiana.

The Emperor of Morocco wants to come to the World's Fair with his 6000 wives, but the St. Louis Post-Dispatch says that somebody has alarmed him about Chicago divorce facilities, and if he shall come he will leave the partners of his joys at home.-Phila. Record.

If Gladstone does visit our Fair he will make no such sensation as the Sultan of Lahore, who plasters $10,000,000 in diamonds over his august person. What pickings for Chicago thieves! - Kate Field's Washington.

Hawaiian Islands Coffee.

that in 1894 and 1895 there ought to be a production of at least 1,-000,000 pounds of coffee from the various coffee plantations in the Hawaiian Kingdom. The Kona Co. has 120 acres under cultivation, and expect to plant fifty acres more next year. It is evident that the high price of coffee is stimulating planting in new as well as old coffee-growing countries. A staff correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Cuba, states that the owners of large estates contemplate the replanting of tracts formerly devoted to coffee. There is abundant room for the growth of coffee planting, and that in connection with the premium high prices place on production, should result in a large increase in supply within five years. -American Grocer.

laws shall have come into full effect the German army will comprise 5,000,000 men; the French, 4,350,000; the Russian 4,000,000; the Italian 2,236,000; the Austrian, 1,900,000; the Swiss, 489,-000; and the Belgian 258,000. Altogether Europe will be able to dispose of not less than 22,000,000 | perty. soldiers, or 15,000,000 more than she had in 1869. Such is the price which she has to pay for Germany's seizure of Alsace-Lorraine.
